General Terms and Conditions

All Exhibitors and their representatives agree to be bound by and comply with the general terms and conditions stated in this commercial agreement. They also agree to abide by the rules and regulations of the fair, the guidelines outlined in the Exhibitor Manual, and any other requirements set forth by the Event Promoter, which are hereby fully integrated and incorporated by reference into this agreement. Likewise, the rules and regulations of the fair, the guidelines in the Exhibitor Manual, and any other requirements established by the Organizing Committee are also fully integrated and incorporated by reference into this agreement.

EXHIBITION SPACE ALLOCATION: The Promoter will allocate space in accordance with the nature of the exhibits or in any manner deemed appropriate and reserves the right to reallocate space at its discretion and to restrict or remove exhibits that deviate from the characteristics of the Event.

USE OF EXHIBITION SPACE: The Exhibitor enters into the commercial agreement to use the booth for the duration of the Event, in accordance with the Exhibitor Manual. The Promoter reserves the right to revoke participation privileges from unprofessional and/or disruptive individuals. Custom or non-standard booths must receive prior written approval from the Promoter. All booths must be set up before the opening of the Event. The Exhibitor shall not assign, sublet, share, or divide all or part of the allocated space, nor have representatives, products, equipment, signs, or printed materials from any company other than their own in the assigned exhibition space without prior written consent from the Promoter.

PAYMENT TERMS: A deposit of 100% of the total booth cost must be made within 15 calendar days after signing the Commercial Agreement. Full payment is required to confirm participation. Failure to comply with the specified payment requirements will result in immediate termination of this agreement.

CANCELLATION POLICY: In the event that the Exhibitor cancels all or part of the contracted exhibition space, the Exhibitor must do so in writing and will be required to pay a cancellation fee.

CANCELLATION DATE AND CANCELLATION FEE:

Cancelling up to 45 days before the start of the Event: 50% of the total booth cost.

Cancelling less than 45 days before the start of the Event: 100% of the total booth cost.

BOOTH RESPONSIBILITY: The Exhibitor is responsible for having a staff member present at the booth full-time during the fair's operating hours.

EVENT SCHEDULE: Setup and dismantling times, and fair operating hours will be published in the Exhibitor Manual. These must be followed unless prior written approval is obtained from the Promoter.

SAMPLE SALES: Sales of product samples displayed during the Event are not allowed, except where a tax receipt is issued to the visitor at the time of sale.

PHOTOGRAPHY: The Promoter is authorized to use the image of any person and/or product exhibited in photographs in any and all media, whether known to the Exhibitor or developed later. The Exhibitor waives the right to inspect or approve the final image, including physical or digital copies, and waives any right to royalties or other compensation arising from or related to the use of such photographs.

ADVERTISING AND PROMOTION: Promotional materials and merchandise of all Exhibitors are restricted to their designated exhibition areas. No advertising activities may be conducted outside the booth or in front of the Event without prior written permission from the Promoter. Acoustic presentations are only permitted if they do not disturb other Exhibitors or inconvenience visitors. The Promoter reserves the right to stop any unauthorized or non-compliant promotional activities.

MEDIA RELATIONS: Any media-related activity, whether organized by the Exhibitor or independently, must be pre-approved by the Promoter's Press Office.

DISCLAIMER OF LIABILITY: The Promoter shall not be liable for any damage caused by force majeure, war, civil unrest, strike, fire, violence, building malfunction, bad weather, or any other circumstances beyond the Promoter's control—including damages caused by visitors, other Exhibitors, or their agents. The Promoter is also not responsible for the number of visitors or business volume generated by participation in the fair. The Promoter reserves the right to change the date and location of the Event due to force majeure. Such changes must be communicated to the Exhibitor at least one month prior to the new start date, and this agreement will remain valid.

SECURITY AND RESPONSIBILITY: All local and state safety laws must be observed in the exhibition area. The Exhibitor will have access to safety instructions for the venue and guidance from security personnel and the Promoter, as detailed in the Exhibitor Manual. The Exhibitor is liable for all damage to persons or property, financial losses resulting from booth construction, equipment, displays, or employees. All required permits must be obtained prior to the Event and made available for inspection by the Promoter. The Promoter will provide security during setup, dismantling, and the full duration of the Event but is not responsible for any loss or damage to the Exhibitor's goods. Entry of individuals under 16 years of age is not permitted.

INSURANCE: The Exhibitor is responsible for obtaining insurance to protect themselves and their participation in the Event.

EXHIBITOR MANUAL: Specific details regarding booth setup and dismantling, exhibitor rules, venue guidelines, and more will be included in the Exhibitor Manual to assist and protect the Exhibitor.

PREVENTION: The Exhibitor may not use any flammable decorations or coverings. All fabrics and decorative materials must be flame-retardant. The Exhibitor must comply with all applicable fire safety regulations.

BOOTH DISMANTLING: The booth area must be returned in the same condition it was received. The Exhibitor will be responsible for repairing any damage to the booth area or shared spaces (structure, floor, cables, ducts, etc.). If the booth is not vacated on time, the Promoter may remove and store the goods, and the Exhibitor will bear the costs. The Promoter is not responsible for items left behind.

TRADEMARK AND OTHER COMMERCIAL RIGHTS: The Promoter expects Exhibitors to respect trademarks and other commercial rights. The Exhibitor is responsible for obtaining all necessary licenses or consents, in accordance with Brazilian laws and regulations, for any activities, displays, or use of registered trademarks, patented products, or designs. In the event of any violation of these rights, the Promoter reserves the right to exclude the Exhibitor from the current and future events, and the Exhibitor shall be subject to Brazilian law. This clause does not impose any obligation on the Promoter to act. The Promoter accepts no liability for intellectual property infringements committed by Exhibitors.

ARBITRATION CLAUSE: The parties elect the Court of the District of São Paulo, SP, Brazil, to settle any disputes regarding this contract, waiving any other jurisdiction, no matter how privileged.

ADDENDUM: Any changes to this commercial agreement must be made in writing and approved in advance and in writing by the other party.
